Meet The Musicians

KYLE DAVIS has been the Director of Music at Our Lady of the Cape church in Brewster since 2018. He holds a Bachelor of Music Performance degree from Western Connecticut State University. Kyle has performed all over the North America, including playing drums for the rock group Marillion in Canada in 2016, as well as piano for President Joe Biden in 2018 on Cape Cod. He also teaches piano and drum lessons privately.

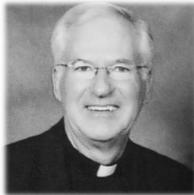

DAN FLONTA is the founder of the Cape Cod String Quartet. He earned his Master of Music from Bowling Green State University in Ohio and Bachelor of Music from Gheorghe Dima Academy in Romania. Performing all over the United States and Europe, Dan has played venues such as Berliner Philharmoniker Hall, Herodes Atticus Theater in Greece, and Troy Music Hall in New York.

MAIREAD DOHERTY was born near Nenagh, County Tipperary, Ireland. She began to play the Irish Harp at age thirteen. Moving to the Boston area in 1971, Mairead has performed at many institutions such as the Boston Public Library, Harvard University, and Symphony Hall. She was part of the committee which organized the Boston College Celtic Harp Festival, as well as being one of the headline performers. Mairead continues to teach private students and give workshops.

JOAN KIRCHNER is Cape Cod's beloved soprano. She has performed with many top music groups such as Toronto's Tefelmusik Chamber Choir, Chorus North Shore, and Woods Hole Cantata Consort. Kirchner is a native of western New York with a Masters Degree in Music from Indiana University. She also teaches voice, flute, and piano throughout Cape Cod.

FATHER JOHN DOLAN has been a priest for over 41 years and has ministered in many La Salette parishes including ones in Massachusetts, Connecticut, Georgia, England, and Texas. He entered the seminary in Ipswich, Massachusetts after serving four years in the Air Force. From an early age John has been involved in church music, singing in choirs, and becoming involved in community theater. For the past eight years he has been singing with the Chatham Chorale here on Cape Cod.

SAM COURNOYER is a graduate of Western Connecticut State University. A classmate of Kyle's, Sam studied music and theater during his bachelor studies. Currently, Sam is studying to obtain his justice and law degree from Boston University on a full scholarship. Sam grew up in western Connecticut before moving to the greater Boston area where he is finishing his law degree.

KATY BERLENBACH is a native of Hingham, Massachusetts and has spent many summers on Cape Cod. She holds a degree in education from Catholic University in Washington DC and her Masters from Boston College. Katy has performed the National Anthem at both Fenway Park and TD Bank Garden in Boston. She is currently a special education teacher and lives with her husband in Cohasset. They are expecting their first child in February!

The Family Pantry of Cape Cod

In 1989 a group of ten people from the St. Vincent De Paul Society of Holy Trinity Church realized that they could not keep up with financial aid to people who needed food so they decided to start a pantry. They ran a food drive over the 4th of July weekend, rented a small store front and opened for business on August 8, 1989. They paid the rent on the storefront by collecting bottles and cans which could be redeemed for a nickel!

Fast forward, and the pantry is a non-profit, non-denominational organization, staffed by over 700 volunteers, a full-time executive director, warehouse manager and thrift store manager along with a part time office manager and program manager. The main Pantry is housed in a large warehouse on Queen Anne Road in Harwich MA and in 2017 the Pantry expanded to include the Healthy Meals in Motion mobile pantry serving the lower Cape.

Inspired by Gospel values, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, a Catholic lay organization, leads women and men to join together to grow spiritually by offering person-to-person service to those who are needy and suffering in the tradition of its founder and patron, St. Vincent de Paul.

As a reflection of the whole family of God, members, who are known as Vincentians, are drawn from every ethnic and cultural background, age group, and economic level. Vincentians are united in an international society of charity by their spirit of poverty, humility and sharing, which is nourished by prayer and reflection, mutually supportive gatherings and adherence to a basic Rule.

Saint Vincent de Paul society works very closely with Our Lady of the Cape church in Brewster where they provide food and help for the needy all over Cape Cod. Each year, the parish of Our Lady of the Cape helps to raise money to benefit the food pantries and help those in need of food and clothing.

Thank you all for your generous support.
